

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Australian Physiotherapy Council Limited (the Council) recognises the commitment of staff, directors, committee members, assessors, panel members and others who contribute to conduct of its functions to the high standard expected by the Council and its stakeholders.

The Council wishes to ensure that they at all times conduct themselves ethically and with honesty and integrity.

To this end, all those who contribute to Council's functions will on appointment be required to sign the following confirmation that they understand and will abide by this Code of Conduct.

I confirm that in my role undertaking activity for the Australian Physiotherapy Council Limited I will abide by the following principles:

1. Behave ethically, impartially, and with honesty and integrity.
2. Make myself familiar with the Council's mission, vision, values, policies and procedures, and act with care and diligence in accordance with them.
3. Treat people with whom I interact with respect and courtesy, and without harassment or discrimination.
4. Comply with all applicable Australian laws, in particular the Health Practitioner Regulation National Law Act 2009 (the National Law).
5. Maintain confidentiality in relation to the Council's business and not take unfair advantage of such knowledge.
6. Provide services in a safe manner, and ensure the services I provide are conducted in a safe work environment.
7. Disclose any relevant interests and take reasonable steps to avoid any conflict of interest (real or perceived) in connection with Council business.
8. Use Council resources in a proper manner.
9. Recognise and respect the intellectual property of the Council and any other organisations and individuals with whom I interact in my work for the Council.
10. Behave in a way that upholds and promotes the good reputation of the Council.
